

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. D. I. BOBBUCK, PRINTER, LEEDS.

Having brought the First Volume to a close, the Compiler takes this opportunity of thanking the many parties who have so kindly furnished him with information ; but to the following Gentlemen he is especially indebted, for their unwearied assistance during the progress of the publication :—

WILLIAM COTHER, Jun, Esq., London,

JOHN LEVESON GOWER WARD, Esq., London,

JOHN GOUGH NICHOLS, Esq., F.S.A., London.

HENRY JAMES CONINGTON, Esq., Boston.

It will be noticed, that though the work professes only to give a List of Members from 1714-15, in some instances earlier contests have been inserted where they could be obtained.

In those Elections, where two columns of figures are given, the first denotes the Plumpers, the second the total number for the Candidate. The names of the unsuccessful Candidates are printed in Italic. Where a — appears after the name, there has been a Contest, but the numbers have not been preserved.

The Compiler respectfully solicits the assistance of gentlemen who possess information concerning any of the Counties yet unpublished, as well as the notice of any errors they may detect in the present volume, as he is desirous of rendering the work as complete as possible.

Headingley, near Leeds, 1st July, 1844.

* On the third day, the friends of Lord Sefton, with a view to diminish his minority, and to poll the freemen for his lordship with greater rapidity, adopted the plan of opening a second bar for him, in the name of Mr. Heywood. The friends of Mr. Canning, to counterbalance any apparent advantage which their antagonist might derive from it, also resolved to nominate John Bolton, Esq. The delay occasioned by these extraordinary proceedings greatly retarded the poll on Saturday. But the still more extraordinary proceedings of Monday threw them into comparative insignificance. Colonel Williams appeared on the hustings, and was put in nomination on the part of Lord Sefton. The nomination of Colonel Williams, on the part of Lord Sefton, was followed by the nomination of John Bridge Aspinall, Esq., on the part of General Gascoyne. Three real candidates and four nominal ones were now on the hustings. The real and nominal candidates were afterwards augmented to the number of nine, for whom the like number of bars were opened, and a round of tallies was actually polled at each of the nine bars. The confusion occasioned by the multiplicity of candidates now became inconvenient, and even ludicrous: but "confusion was soon worse confounded" by the nomination of an additional number of nominal candidates, who now amounted to eighteen, and, with three real candidates, made, in the whole, twenty-one! a number unprecedented in the annals of contested elections. The hustings became a scene of the greatest confusion; and the polling was again much retarded by the extraordinary proceedings of the day. The inconvenience produced by the anomaly indicated the proper remedy. The nominal candidates abdicated, by mutual consent, their separate claims, and the twenty-one bars were reduced to four. The exception was in favour of Mr. Heywood's bar, which was allowed to be kept open from a principle of accommodation. As a matter of curiosity, we subjoin a correct list of the nominal candidates.

*LETTER OF LORD HOWICK ON RETIRING FROM THE CONTEST.

ALNWICK, July 3rd.

Sir,

I understand that you are this day arrived here with the intention of voting for me. I am exceedingly obliged to you for your kindness, and I shall be no less obliged to you, if, as I have now retired, you will have the goodness to vote for Mr. Bell, or if that should be inconsistent with your feelings, if you will abstain from voting altogether.

I have the honour to be,
Sir, your obedient servant,
HOWICK.

* Sir Henry Wright Wilson petitioned, and on the 1st. May, 1827, the Chairman of the Committee (C. C. Western, Esq.) reported to the House that the sitting members were not duly elected, and that the election was void. The Chairman also stated "That the Committee considered it their duty to direct the serious attention of the House to the corrupt state of the Borough." After many propositions, it was finally determined to extend the franchise to the Freeholders of the Hundred of Bassetlaw; and a new writ was not issued previous to the General Election of 1830.
